COMING ATTRACTIONS.

The Columbia-De Wolf Hopper,

In this play, which is an adaptation of a French comedy by the authors of "Love Watches," the delightful sentimental comedy in which Billy Burke has been appearing, Mr. Drew has one of those parts in the playing of which he excels. He assumes the role of a French a play of romance and adventure in old gentleman of fashion, over-burdened with money, and afflicted with a temperamental defect which renders him not only susceptible to the charms of pretty women, but which also prevents him from making up his mind and deciding any important question. He is always ple opportunity to display his versatility. entangled with four or five women, and always perplexed as to which one he pre-

HER SACRIFICE.

Tis Lent. With wistful looks she greets
Me when I call at night; she meets
Me with a happy little cry;
Ah! surely they are heard on high,
The pious prayers that she repeats!
I do not have to pay for seats
At foolish plays since she retreats
At foolish plays since she retreats
The deuce how fond she is of swe I thought to save; I've ceased It's taking all I have to buy
The extra candy that she eats;

'Tis Lent'

'Tis Lent' The deuce how fond she is of sweets! I thought to save; I've ceased to try; 'Tis Lent.

Pay Day!

What does that mean to you?

Every pay day your envelope contains enough to spare just a little for a savings account if you'll only make up your mind to devote a certain amount to that purpose.

Don't think you'll do it "next pay day"-start TO-DAY-our banks will be open until 5 o'clock.

You work for your money-let some of it work for you. Every dollar deposited here will earn 3% interest.

of Intercity Tourney. Special to The Washington Herald.

Baltimore, Md., Feb. 16.-Edward B. Powell put Baltimore in the lead in the intercity billiard match with Washington by defeating Warren Hoeke, of the Capital City team in the opening game of the tournament to-night at Klein's, 200 points to 176. Powell's victory came as a surprise, as he furnished a better game than was expected of him, though Hoeke made the high run of the game in the thirteenth inning, pulling away from the Baltimorean.

About twenty-five rooters came over with Hoeke from Washington, among them being Frank Sherman,
